From our Administrator:

Dear RCCA Families:

We consider it a blessing to partner and serve alongside of Christian families. Daily, RCCA tells students that they have a loving and perfect God who has a call on their lives, and a purpose for eternity.

We are committed to maintaining an academy where God's peace, joy, and love are manifested in every atmosphere. Jesus Christ is the only hope the world has, and RCCA strives to be a community that evidences, lives out and gives that hope.

Praying you have a blessed weekend,
Mrs. Jeni Chase

ADOPT A SENIOR

2026-2027

What does it mean?

When you adopt a senior, you commit to walking alongside them throughout the school year—covering them in prayer, encouraging them through thoughtful communication, showing up to cheer them on, and blessing them with small surprises and treats.

Expectations

- Daily: Cover them in prayer.
- Weekly: Send a note of encouragement or share a meaningful scripture.
- Monthly: Show up to support them at a game, performance, or event that matters to them.
- Special Days: Celebrate holidays, birthdays, and school events (like pep rallies) with thoughtful surprises and treats.

How to get involved

SIMPLE

Email Jill Marsh jillaleciamarsh@gmail.com to request a senior.

Thank You!

Senior year is such a meaningful milestone. Your prayers, encouragement, and support can make this season even more special and memorable. Thank you for being a source of blessing and joy in their lives
